HOST A STORYTIME!

EVENT SUGGESTIONS

- Set out snacks for the kids. Llama recommends CAKE. Cupcakes or cake pops would also suffice.
- Encourage kids to come in their dancing pants—pajama bottoms will do!
- Hide a “black hole” somewhere in the kids section. Ask the kids to look for it for the chance to win a special prize or to play the part of Llama in the read aloud.
- Have a dance party and teach the kids how to do their own “cha cha real smooth.”
- Make copies of the activities in this booklet and provide markers or crayons.

READ-ALoud TIPS

- Use a serious voice for the narrator. Ask one person to read Llama's part to maximize comic effect.
- Llama is a very accomplished artist, dancer, reader, scientist, and general thinker. Ask kids which Llama activity is their favorite and what else he should add to his repertoire.
- Llama makes a few mistakes in the book. Talk to the storytime group about how it's okay to make mistakes.

AGES 4-8 • $17.99 / $23.50 CAN.

I am Llama.

MEET LLAMA, THE NEXT GREAT
PICTURE BOOK MEGASTAR, WHO HAS
MOST DEFINITELY DRIVEN A BUS AND WHO LOVES TACOS WAY MORE THAN YOU.

He also loves cake, and that's where our story begins.

On Monday, Llama discovers a pile of cake, which he promptly eats.

On Tuesday, Llama squeezes into his dancing pants, which he promptly rips.

The force of the rip creates a black hole (naturally).

By Friday, Llama will (indirectly) destroy the world.

In their debut picture book, author/illustrator team Jonathan Stutzman and Heather Fox introduce young readers to the comical, the studious, the oblivious Llama, a picture book hero for the ages. So grab some cake and your dancing pants and prepare for Llama Destroys the World . . . because
